

ASSOCIATION OF MINING AND SURFACE RESCUERS – AMSR

Petrosani, Code 332047, General V.Milea Street, no.32-34
Fax: 00(40)254546277, Tel: 00(40)254/541621, 00(40)541622 Extension 178, 131, 153
Account no.2511.1 – 10424.1/ROL; 2511.1 – 10424.2/USD; 2511.1 – 10424.3/EUR
B.C.R. Petrosani, Fiscal Code: 15538408
e-mail: asmsr03@yahoo.com
ROMANIA

Constitute of the Association Mining and Surface Rescuers in Romania – AMSR

Artur George Găman – senior researcher
INSEMEX Petrosani ROMANIA

On 27 March, an initiative group compound of 49 persons, in majority heads from Mining and Surface Rescue Stations and heads from Mining Safety Services in Romania come together in General Assembly of constitute. They have fixed the initiation of the approach with a view to found a professional association with out lucrative purpose of rescue staff in Romania.

Activity object specified in the association statute consists of followings:

- 1.To extend cooperation on national plane of Rescue Stations and the information exchange between these.
- 2.To establish relationship with similar bodies in the country and from abroad.
3. To promote and defend dignity, rights and interests of partners.
- 4.To promote the image of Romania through taking part to international competitions in the activity field, as well as organizing of zonal and international competitions.
- 5.To be available to local authorities in the case of producing catastrophes, natural disasters or generalized conflicts in the view of participation to the delivery of civilian population and to remove the consequences of these events.
6. To impel elaborating of modern national strategy for endowment of rescue teams.
- 7.To align to the international norms and standards in the field.
8. To collaborate and direct support in the case of producing vast in scope damages.
- 9.To initiate and develop collaboration between rescue teams and Red Cross teams, Civilian Protection, paramedics, SALVAMONT, Fire Protection teams etc. in the view of specific interventions in case of necessity and of dissemination of first aid and reanimation knowledge.
- 10.To unfold legislative initiative in the view of coercitiveness stipulation of economic agents which carry on potential damage of risks activity to have organized rescue activity and unitary treatment of this activity, indifferent of the industrial branch or geographic area.

- 11.To practise approaches about states authorities in view of recognizing of the special importance and the humanitarian character of this profession, as well as its including in trade (professional) catalogue.
- 12.To unfold specific approaches in collaboration with other organization, as well as trade union, as well as initiate and support legislative projects for the uphold of association members on social plane and salary.
- 13.To create an own material base (resuscitate and rescue equipment, intervention apparatus for explosive, chemical, toxic, aggressive environment, in difficult microclimate conditions, conveyance vehicle etc.)
- 14.To disseminate information and up to date knowledge in the field as part of all association members.
- 15.To edit and publish technique speciality papers (books, articles, CD-ROM, and so on).
- 16.To promote association and its objectives through editing informative papers, as well as creating of an INTERNET site.
- 17.To grant according to possibilities of humanitarian aid and assistance to association's members affected by injury or illnesses because of practicing rescuer trade.
- 18.To make-up meetings, conferences, round tables, and other scientific manifestations in the activity field in national or international plane.
- 19.To participate to meetings, conferences, round tables, and other scientific manifestations in the activity field on national or international plane.
- 20.To perform scientific research projects in the field of rescue activity and effective implementation of those results with the collaboration of qualified institutions.
- 21.To found, in conditions of the law of (joint-stock) companies, and to unfurl economic direct activities, with accessory character and in connection with the activity object of the association.
- 22.To conjugate the efforts of all the association members in the view of obtaining for AMSR of the attribute of public utility association.

In July 2003, the Association Mining and Surface Rescuers in Romania compound of 650 founding members have finalized the approaches of constitute. Deciding to constitute in a dialog partner with state authorities and civilian society AMSR have begun the gradual approach of the above mentioned objectives.